301-5 – Healing the Inner Child 2

Presented By: Cheryl O'Neil

Part 2 of two-part series delves into Unfair Hurt. A variety of hypnotherapeutic strategies are discussed, as well as how to build a positive subconscious system to replace the hurt child system of long ago. A six-session plan is explored, and hypnotherapist Tip Sheets are provided and hypnotic journeys, suggestions, phrases, and imagery nanos, round out the Healing the Inner Child Handbook. This class also provides a demo, and two more group imagery experiences.

Completed: Thu, Sep 18, 2025 / Score: 100%

Unfair Hurt – to Forgive or Not to Forgive – Make Peace With It

The Loss

Something goes wrong. With it comes affliction. It may be no one is at fault. It may be someone or something outside of anyone's control. It may be indisputably clear who is at fault. It may be someone close, or it may be so remote it is murky. It happened. It is a child and such discernment matters little. It causes pain, suffering, and hurt. The explanation, the extenuating circumstances, mitigating events, excuses, or really good reasons that any grownup would understand, the plain truth or foggy lies, and whether they were doing the best they could, it couldn't be helped, was for your own good, cruel fate or outright rotten malevolence, whatever the story – in the subconscious inner child image it hurts, it is unfair.

And it is all mixed up with the loss. The profound sense of loss. Lost childhood, lost happiness, lost security, lost trust, lost chances, lost their way, lost life, lost more. Loss so important, so far reaching, it feels like nothing can make up for it. And it is all bound up by abysmal grief over the loss, over the unfairness, over everything, or over what they cannot explain, over they don't know what. Too wronged. Any apologies that come along the way could easily be dismissed. I don't believe they mean it, it's too late, and it doesn't take it away. The adult conscious and hurt child subconscious are in adamant agreement. The loss is unfair. It cannot be fixed. It cannot be okay.

And the way out is blocked by fearful, hopeless feelings that everything I try to do gets wrecked. Somebody or something will trip me up, subvert, torpedo, ruin it. Success now or happiness now means if I can do it now, I could have done it a long time ago, so I feel like I wasted my life. It means it wasn't that bad. So it's my fault. But I didn't have a choice. It's unfair.

Then and now, the client makes their way as best they can. There are some awful riddles in life, which remain unanswerable. When it comes to the whys about a child having to endure such hardship, there is no answer – especially not to a child or an adult with a subconscious hurt child. Once and ever unfair. It can never be that it did not happen. Even so, there is a way out. The past does not have to control the future. Some hurt inner child image clients want something more. They want to make peace with it.

Make Peace with the Past

In many ways, the effect of the past diminishes through the hypnotherapeutic process. Some clients may want to make peace with the past in a more definite way. They want peace of mind, ease their heart over it, stop the inner bark, bark, barking about it, the going over and over and over it, thinking and thinking and thinking about it, to quiet down inside, to get some serenity about it. It is important that going deliberately and specifically to settle the past comes from the client. It is important to help in the way that is easiest for the client to reach this goal.

The Right Way for the Client

This client may want peace by forgiving, and that client may want peace, and it is unforgivable. The client may want to find their inner peace solo or with a connection to something spiritual. Whichever way, the client needs to find the peace they are seeking without re-suggesting or reinforcing the old negatives of the past. The way is ever forward.

Forgivable

Forgiving is looked upon as something commendable. Magnanimous. It is popularly recommended in self-help and promoted by a common view that holding onto resentment is bad for all sorts of reasons. Spiritual traditions affirm the importance of forgiveness. Forgiving has a reputation for bringing the forgiver and the forgiven peace. Forgiveness holds the promise of letting it go, freedom from hurt, and restoration of damage. These are powerful incentives for a client to want to forgive, and to think they must forgive.

To the client, forgiving may seem to be a necessity. The price for their own inner peace. It is the price to feel free. Adult clients with hurt inner child images can really want to feel free of it. Just put it behind them. They are sick and tired of it, thinking about it, feeling bad about it, doing stupid things because of it, feeling held back by it, hurting from it. If forgiving is the way out, okay.

To the client, forgiving may seem to be a step forward. Maybe the client has let go of past resentments and wants to forgive. It may seem like the right thing to do. Forgiving can be an important principle, value, or standard. It may be they just think now is the time; “I’m ready to forgive.” The client may feel that as a nice, loving person, a good person, forgiveness is natural.

It can feel uplifting – something special bestowed. A gift to give and receive. A lot of hope is wrapped up in that act. There is hope that they will feel better, that the recipient will value it, and that things will be different. Mercy granted is a leap without requiring contrition, confession, and assurances for the future. What the others might do, and what others might feel cannot be controlled. The client takes the high road, they are the bigger person, and in some ways, they have always had to be. Withholding forgiveness can seem like they are trying to punish, but they don’t punish – they are not the punisher, the mean one, and they are not that. Besides, they weren’t always so perfect when they were a kid; they did things too.

This may be their first time at forgiving, or they may have had a few goes at it already. It does not always stop the anger. It does not always change their life. The hoped-for benefits of forgiving sometimes go unfulfilled. No effect whatsoever. The goals and intentions of the adult conscious by forgiving may be rejected outright by the beliefs and expectations of the subconscious hurt child. Their perspectives are different. The emergency may be over, but the hurt inner child image missed the all-clear signal.

Subconscious forgiveness gives the client a chance. A positive subconscious, grown strong and independent, is much more likely to be in agreement with a conscious intention to forgive.

Unforgivable

Forgiveness is not necessary for a client to be happy or have their life. It is not a condition for a hypnotherapy transformational process of changing a negative subconscious to a strong positive subconscious. The usuals – life isn’t fair, it was a long time ago, get over it, everyone had stuff happen, don’t hold a grudge, you should let it go, you’re better than this, let bygones be bygones, forgive to forget, forgive for your own sake – all of that can just be provoking, hackneyed platitudes to a client when it feels unforgivable.

And in the timeless subconscious, the feelings of a hurt child image can be unfair and unforgivable, and that’s that. Sometimes, introducing the idea of forgiveness can lead the process into the unsolvable why, the depths of the unfairness, and the brick wall of it is not okay, can never be okay, forgiving them means it was okay and it is unforgivable. It may open up some of the deepest hurt and anger. After all, in some ways, a child managing hard times may have done the forgive and forget over and over – it’s okay, let it go, full pardon, amnesty, understood forgiveness, with the hope that maybe this time it will be different – cold comfort.

Hypnotherapy can take the client a long way to getting them disengaged from the negative emotions associated with a wrong, with a wrongdoer without granting the pardon ever. The help comes from changing the client receptivity by strengthening and positizing the subconscious. The way is focusing positively on the future forward, not the past backward. The client can feel and do better in life without forcing the client to forgive and forget. Sometimes forgiving just happens almost as a side-effect of the positive hypnotherapy, but sometimes it never happens. Either way, they can have a happy life.

Unfair Hurt – Make Peace With It Imagery Journeys

Walk Away
Emo – Unburdening the Burdens

- DirectStyle Imagery
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

Became aware of it somewhere along the line – right? As though out of the blue – or a voice within – or maybe it was a friend – some helper or someone that said – putting the burdens down brings freedom –

And – so now it is here – the doing of which seems more than can be done – yet giving it a go because wanting to be done with it – fiercely wanting to be done with it!

And thinking or wondering – right? Maybe this is the way – maybe this is the way to get out of the past backward and face positively to the future forward –

So now, imagining – retrieving all the backpacks – the bags and bundles carried – unleashing them – opening them up to have a last something with them – like some kind of acknowledging –

Yet – there's a knowing inside – right? A knowing inside that every single day has been with acknowledging and there is a welcomed need to be done with it – letting go of the burdens past-present-future – there's a knowing of what they are – and so this is the last time – the last time – the need and want to be free of it all has finally come more strongly –

And so – imagining pulling out all the stuff – and beginning to say goodbye to it all – and then – wait –

Getting it – right? There's no need for that – saying goodbye forever is now without even going through it all again – One – More – Time –

Then it's packing it all up – making sure all the snaps and buckles and straps of the backpacks and the bags are firmly secure – closed – shut – and done forevermore –

And then, by the force of all of what Nature has provided – imagining by all the elemental healing life forces called upon for this moment – imagining hurling the biggest pack out to the depths of the deep, deep blue of the Universe to never be seen or heard of again –

Ahhh – what a feeling – almost freedom –

Because there are other bags and such left – the complete sense of freedom is to be rid of all of – but who needs to hurl them – let's just walk away from that pile of stuff –

Getting the sense of walking away and keep on walking –

Walking and walking, far, far, far away – until the bags are gone – zip – vanished –
Because the past backward is behind now –
And the positive future facing forward is ahead –
Going forward now is the only way –

Imagining the unburdening has happened – it's over done and gone –
So now there is space – space – more room to be all of everything unlimited –
Positively developing more of all the good that has been building – building up within –

Imagining filling the space with more peace within –

Connecting and easily and effortlessly communicating within to sense and know the positives –

Learning new ways to go and experiencing the freedom of it all –
Getting acquainted with trust within and finding the benefits of being unburdened –

And there is time for it all – day by day – week by week –
Creating and knowing the freedom of being unburdened – for always and forever –
Knowing the Positive Way – and positive focusing –
Where only positive results can occur –
And that's how it goes – positively –

So now, at 0 – let's reinforce the positives – and as the images fade for now – the strength of them stays within – and with a deep cleansing breath in and release at 1 – bring back the positive, the good, and the true at 2 – and now at 3 – 4 – 5 – eyes open wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake –

You became aware of it somewhere along the way – didn't you? It was a voice within – or maybe it was a friend – some helper or someone said – put the burdens down –

And – so now, here you are – ready to deal with it – which seems more than can be done – yet you are giving it a go – because you want to be done with it – with a strong determined feeling – you want to be done with it!

Maybe this is the way – maybe this is your way to get out of the past backward and face positively on your future forward –

So now – as you visualize and imagine – let all of your senses heighten – as you see yourself retrieve all the backpacks – the bags and bundles you carried – unleash them – open them up to have a last look at them – like an acknowledgment –

Yet – you know inside – right? Inside, you know that every single day, you have acknowledged it all, and there is a welcomed need to be done with it and so this is the last time – the last time – let go of the burdens past-present-future – you know what they are – you need and want to be free of it all – it is finally strongly here –

Ahhh – what a feeling – almost completely free –

Because you see, there are other bags and such left – your complete relief is to be rid of all of it – but who needs to hurl them – let's just walk away from that pile of stuff –

See yourself walk away from that stuff and keep on walking –

Walk and walk far, far, far away – until the bags are gone – zip – vanished –
Because the past backward is behind you now –
And your positive future forward is ahead as you face it –
Go forward now – it is the only way –

Imagine you unburdened yourself – it happened – it's over – done and gone –
So now there is lots more room for you to be all of who you are – unlimited –
Positively, you develop more of all the good that has been building – building up within –

Imagine filling yourself with more peace within –
The love of self more easily comes within as you know your positive qualities –
You learn new ways to go and live in joy and live in love –
You come to trust yourself and value the benefits of being unburdened –

And there is time for it all – day by day – week by week –
Create and know the freedom of being unburdened – for always and forever –
You live the Positive Way – and more often do positive focusing –
Where only positive results can occur –
And that is how your mind and your body responds – positively –

So now at 0 – let's reinforce the positives – and as the images fade for now – the strength of them stays with you – and now with a deep cleansing breath in and release at 1 – bring back the positive the good and the true at 2 – and now at 3 – 4 – 5 – eyes open wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake –

Forgiveness Flow
Emo – Somewhere Somehow Forgiveness

- DirectStyle Imagery Insert
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep
- For Stand Alone Version, Do Long Progressive 5-0 Deep Sleep

Somewhere – somehow – someway – as though it was called up – as though just even the thought of it was as though calling it – yes – the thought called it – and it began to open up something way down deep inside sort of naturally –

Like a crack in a rock – in someway somehow a readiness for the rock to begin little by little to break apart – and a trickle of this goodness began to come through that crack – a gentle goodness began to trickle through –

Then the rock began to open up more – that crack in the rock – and a sort of flow – a definite sort of flow began to occur – still small – but it could be said it was flowing –

And then with that – more flow – and with more flowing – the knowing of that original thought – the thought which called it – began to be known – it was the willingness – the willingness thought that came into being – and that began the journey of forgiveness –

That flow of forgiveness ever wanted ever needed began to flow more easily and without effort – a steady over-washing flow with no holds back – now gushing forth – now tumbling all around and all through – washing over not only the original – but there to just simple always flow over everything – over everything – it began to be eternal – always there – For stand-alone version – staircase for deepening here –

And – somewhere – somehow – someway – there was better – just a betterness because of this steady ongoing flow – forgiveness everywhere flowing over everything – reigniting a deep compassion connection for all – and then still – even bringing something more –

Something more came about – something completely unexpected – something completely surprising – something to be sitting with for a while – yes – something completely unexpected and surprising –

The something more completely unexpected and surprising – sitting with it for a while – the feeling of peace – yes – sitting with the feeling of peace – the feeling of peace – being at peace with it – at peace with it all –

For stand-alone version – count up and out from 1-5 here And so for now – beginning to come up and out of this experience today – appreciating the wonders of imagination – let's reinforce the positives at – 0 – and now at – 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – bringing back the good – the positive – and the true – into your conscious outer awake life – 2 realizing where you are – the room you are in – 3 – feeling peaceful and secure – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Forgiveness Flow

So somehow it happened – you called it up – in a way – because you had a thought –

Your thought brought it forward, and then it all began to happen naturally –

Deep inside of you – your thought created a readiness – your thought brought forward an open availability – and this open availability in you began in a small way – little by little, this open availability of goodness – this goodness began to come through –

And this goodness began to increase – and it began to make a difference – you began to feel something different – and the flow of this goodness continued to increase – because more thought of the flow of this goodness – the more the flow of goodness came around you –

And then you knew – you knew the original thought – you had the original thought of willingness – and it was this willingness that began the open availability of goodness – and that began your journey of forgiveness –

And then it was clear for you that this flow was the flow of forgiveness – a long-standing ever-wanted ever-needed forgiveness was flowing from within you, and it was here – as though it just sort of happened – easily and effortless it came pouring forth – all around and all through you – and over everyone and everything – all was forgiveness – always and eternal – now always here – For stand-alone version – staircase for deepening here –

And – so now – there was a better feeling – just a better feeling because of this steady ongoing flow – forgiveness everywhere flowing over everything – reigniting your deep well of love within for life and living –

And then something more happened – something completely unexpected – something completely surprising – something you wanted to assimilate deeply – because it was something completely unexpected and surprising –

So – as you began to feel this something else – this something more completely unexpected and surprising – after you assimilated it – you began to know it – it was the feeling of peace within – the feeling of peace within – just simply – and completely – feeling at peace within – and at peace with it – feeling at peace with it all –

For stand-alone version – count up and out from 1-5 here And so for now – begin to come up and out of this journey today – appreciate the wonders of your imagination – reinforce the positives at – 0 – and now – 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – bring back the good – the positive – and the true – into your conscious outer awake life – 2 – realize where you are – the room you are in – 3 – feeling peaceful – relaxed – and comfortable – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

From Without from Within
Emo – It's Known as Spirit of Forgiveness

- DirectStyle Imagery
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

And just becoming even more comfortable now – each and every breath still calming and comforting – perhaps there is a wondering – how does it all come about?

It's been said just the tiniest spark of desire can ignite it –

And further wondering might perhaps ask – where does it come from?

Many claim as though it is already here for always all around like an ongoing healing energy in the world to draw upon –

Some wonder – is it within or is it without?

The experience of it often seems perhaps to be both within and without – yet intertwined – and came to be known as the Spirit of Forgiveness –

If it were to be – if it could really be that simple – the important thing to understand is that the process has already been started – because the desire for it has been acknowledged –

So – perhaps to put a little more attention to it – as though imagining that the Spirit of Forgiveness is a possibility – perhaps to notice a something stirring stemming from the desire for it – and as though deep inside it begins to take shape and form –

And if it could take shape and form – like a symbol or an image – coming to know about it would allow for more comfort – and perhaps more – take a few moments imagining –
Facilitator pauses 30 seconds or more –

Allowing the Spirit of Forgiveness – coming into being – and beginning to be noticing a feeling from it – perhaps a feeling of relief – or something else – something different –

Then also – as the Spirit of Forgiveness seems more and larger now – at the same time, another something begins to occur – some sort of outer energy – some sort of outer energy coming through blending with the feeling within –

And so as though tapping into that outer energy which seems to be aware now of the feeling within and now joining – The Spirit of Forgiveness is fully alive!

Within and without – without and within fully alive – the Spirit of Forgiveness is gracing every nook and cranny all around and all through – bringing more relief – and more – removing of anything no longer wanted or needed –

And with this wonderous experience, let's take it to the top of symbolic staircase – where we reinforce it all with every step down now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

As the deepest despairs are being expunged and extinguished – The Spirit of Forgiveness is now flowing all around and all through – taking away any remaining tensions from all negative emotions –

The Spirit of Forgiveness keeps doing the goodness it is meant to do – now building up the strength of it – flowing all around and all through – extending out – radiating out – and gracing as well – all others that are meant to feel the relief from this Spirit of Forgiveness – it's a gift of giving and receiving – within and without–

And whatever once was – before The Spirit of Forgiveness – whatever once was – has now faded – faded – faded away – becoming more and more distant – moving further and further away – further and further away –

And now restoring the rightful feelings – as the healing life forces of the combined energy of the Spirit of Forgiveness are bringing forth – those positive feelings that belong –

Relief – more relief – and calm –

Comfort – more comfort – and freedom – more freedom –

Peacefulness – more peacefulness – peace within –

More peace within –

And from this experience today – allow the good – the positive – and the true – to be reinforced now at 0 – and as we come up and out – bring back the good feelings – the peacefulness and the calm at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – 3 – 4 – and 5 eyes open wide awake – wide awake and alert –

Just even more relaxed now – as you breathe in even more comfort with every breath –

You could be asking about it in your mind – how does it all come about?

Well – it's been said just that little bit of desire you have can ignite it –

And further, you might ask – where does it come from?

Many claim it is already here for always – an ongoing healing energy in the world that we can draw upon –

But is it within, or is it without?

The experience of it often seems to be both within and without – yet intertwined – it is known as the Spirit of Forgiveness –

If it were to be actualized – you know that the process has already been started – because your desire for it has been acknowledged –

So – go ahead and put a little more attention to it – visualize and imagine the Spirit of Forgiveness – perhaps notice something stirring – the desire for it gets stronger – and deep inside it begins to take shape and form –

As it takes shape and form – let an image come forward – and get to know it – take a few moments to visualize and imagine the Spirit of Forgiveness image –
Facilitator pauses 30 seconds or more –

Allow the Spirit of Forgiveness image to come into being – and begin to notice how you feel being with it – maybe a letting it go feeling – maybe something more –

Then also – as the Spirit of Forgiveness is more and larger now – at the same time another something begins to occur – some sort of other energy – some sort of healing energy coming down through you – blending with your own feeling within –

And so tap into that healing energy which seems to be aware now of how you feel about the Spirit of Forgiveness image – and now joins with it – and The Spirit of Forgiveness is now fully alive within you!

Within and without – without and within – fully alive – the Spirit of Forgiveness is moving all around and all through you – bringing more letting go feelings – and more – removing anything no longer wanted or needed –

And with this wonderous happening – let's take it to the top of your symbolic staircase – where you can reinforce it all with every step down now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

As the deepest despairs are being expunged and extinguished – The Spirit of Forgiveness is now finding its healing way all around and all through you – even at a deepest level – taking away any remaining tensions from all negative emotions –

The Spirit of Forgiveness keeps doing the goodness it is meant to do – now building up its strength – as it continues to flow all around and all through you – and then extends out – radiates out – and graces all others that are meant to receive the relief from this Spirit of Forgiveness as well – it is a gift to give and receive – within and without –

And whatever once was – before The Spirit of Forgiveness – whatever once was – has now faded – faded – faded away – becomes more and more distant – moves further and further away – further and further away –

And now the rightful feelings are restored – as the healing life forces of the combined energy of the Spirit of Forgiveness bring forth – those positive feelings that belong –

Letting it go – more letting it go – and relaxation –

Comfort – more comfort – and confidence – more confidence –

Peacefulness – more peacefulness – peace within –

More peace within –

And from this experience today – allow the good – the positive – and the true – to be reinforced now at 0 – and as we come up and out – bring back the good feelings – the peacefulness and the confidence at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – 3 – 4 – and 5 eyes open wide awake – wide awake and alert –

Hypnotherapy Six-Session Strategy
A Way to Go – Hypnosis and Imagery

Subconscious Positive Support

Session 1: Foundation Hypnosis

- Block to negatives of the past
- Block to hyper-suggestibility
- Physical and mental anchors of Emo calm or Phys relax
- Relieve stress
- Self-Value – recognize their individual uniqueness
- Building up to goal
- Desensitize to negatives
- Release negatives in early morning venting dream

Session 2: Elements for Success Hypnosis

- Reinforce physical and mental anchors of Emo calm or Phys relax
- Breathing is their own internal tool
- Self-Value – recognize their individual uniqueness
- Energize and increase desire
- Energize and increase belief
- Build strength within
- Desensitize to negatives
- Reinforce goal

Session 3: Glimpse Hypnosis

- Child image is distant
- Instill the feeling of well-being
- Friendly
- Start positive expectation
- Supportive
- Healing effect for past-present-future

Session 4: Give Positive Suggestions in Hypnosis

- Child image is nearer
- Flooding with positives
- Strengthening
- Desensitizing negatives

Session 5: Find the Protector Within Imagery

- Image of a protector

- Encouraging, kind, caring, protective
- Client contributes additional protector qualities
- Imagery positizes subconscious directly

Session 6: Easy Going Meet Gently Imagery

- Child image is here
- Client gets to know the child image
- Client and image communicate and share back and forth
- Imagery positizes subconscious directly

Session 1: Foundation
Emo – Calm Anchor

If this is client's first session ever – do the traditional Kappasinian First Session, including –

- Preinduction Talk
- Theory of Mind
- Suggestibility Testing
- Arm Raising Induction
- Deepening Technique
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

And so just focusing on the sound of my voice – allowing all the sounds around to drift into the background – they're unimportant – let those sounds just be part of drifting deeper now into a comfortable – very comfortable state – a state of being where there begins to be an open availability for understanding about yourself even more – understanding about other people even more – through positive thoughts – ideas – images – and suggestions –

A door has now opened to be receiving the most powerful helpfulness of the deeper mind – the subconscious – because making this subconscious connection is allowing for overpowering all the old negative belief systems that may be carried from the past –

The negative past backward is over – done and gone – what was once something is no more, and that was then – this is now – we are now blocking the negatives of the past – are no longer of value – no longer necessary – blocking the negatives of the past because they are over – dead and gone –

This now time is the forever facing forward present to future – a positive present to future positive – ongoing starting now –

For we are creating a strong new foundation that becomes more and more familiar with each day – a positive foundation to stand upon that provides a way forward – a Positive Way forward that supports all the goals and dreams desired –

The subconscious is now allowing images to form from these words and creating a new landscape for the Positive Way forward because there is permission for it – right here, right now is the permission for preparing and accepting positive change taking place –

And because of being in a comfort state right now – giving permission for accepting positive change is sort of like the wind shifting – and a warmer breeze occurs, and there's an easily and effortlessly preparing and accepting of positive change because of the desire for it –

And so – just reinforcing now – the comfort and the calm of it all – just drifting and sensing and beginning to realize the calm even more and perhaps just even allowing an image to come forward in the mind – an image that stands for calm – remaining comfortable and easy in all ways –

And when having that image, just giving a nod – just giving a nod as the image of calm becomes more present in the mind – simply just letting the feeling of calm and the image of calm becoming anchored in the mind – and allowing the goodness of it –

As though calm now begins moving all around and all through – and even perhaps to know that even in conscious outer awake life, the thought of calm – the image of calm that is anchored in the mind – could bring about the feeling of calm even in conscious outer awake life –

So to next imagine – getting a sense of being at the top of symbolic staircase of 21 steps – calm, and comfortable, and secure – getting a sense of suggestions here about client sensing themselves as someone achieving the goal – or simple goal suggestions –

And with every step down – we are reinforcing all of these ideas now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

Deeper and deeper into the positive domain – negatives have long ago dissipated and disintegrated – including any negative thoughts, ideas, or suggestions from anyone including yourself – all are blocked now – for the positive good – for forward movement in life because the overall positive good begins to now take the lead position – as we change receptivity to become more and more aligned with the positive – no matter what – and that's how it goes – positively –

This positive energy has a definite positive effect when imagining the fulfillment of the goal – imagining it fully with any or all of the senses – fully and completely – getting a very clear sense of it as the images come all around and bring it to life – more suggestions about the goal here –

And then – there is also this – in helping to bring about goals and dreams –

It's been said that to value yourself is an important thing to do – many people know that to have self-value is important – it's something that sometimes people forget to do – to value themselves – so they need to be reminded – some people never learned self-value – and so they have the opportunity to create it – right in the present –

What is self-value? Understanding self-value is a kind of appreciation for the true essence of being – unwrapping from the old that has clouded the vision of the true essence of self –

Unwrapping all the old stuff to begin holding a higher, more true thought of self – as a unique individual with a definite special place in the Universe – and that allows for remembering being no less than the stars or the trees – having a right to be here –

Something more – in the coming days and weeks ahead – there will be a tendency to have early morning venting dreams – these dreams might be more colorful – perhaps there's a sense of more easily remembering these dreams – they are simply a way for the mind to be clearing – just releasing any more of what is no longer needed or wanted in an early morning venting dream – and letting it go –

And so once again – before we come up and out of the state of hypnosis – let's just bring that calm image to mind once more – and all around and all through – the image of calm belongs as a good feeling –

And knowing that calm is anchored in the mind – so whenever needed – it can go into a positive effect easily and effortlessly – even in conscious outer awake life – let the image settle deeply within to begin happening automatically whenever needed –

And this is the positive focusing for today – and knowing that what we say is – what is focused on follows – so it would only follow to focus positively – and a positive focusing can only bring about positive results – that's how it goes – positively –

And as we come up and out of the state of hypnosis, count the client out and then put them back in with the post hypnotic suggestion to re-hypnosis – reinforce calm once more –

And now at 0 – we reinforce it all – at 1 – with a big deep cleansing breath in and release now at 2 – bringing back the good feelings – a sense of where you are – the room you are in – 3 – a wonderful sense of well-being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open wide awake and alert – back to a completely non-suggestible state – wide awake and alert 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 wide awake and alert –

Session 1: Foundation
Phys – Relax Anchor

If this is client's first session ever – do the traditional Kappasinian First Session including –

- Pre-induction Talk
- Theory of Mind
- Suggestibility Testing
- Arm Raising Induction
- Deepening Technique
- Progressive Relaxation 5-0 Deep Sleep

And so just focus on the sound of my voice – allow all the sounds around to drift into the background – they're unimportant – let those sounds just be part of drifting deeper now into a relaxed – very relaxed state – a state of being where you begin to be more open and available to positive thoughts – ideas – images – and suggestions –

A door has now opened to receive the most powerful help of the deeper mind – the subconscious – where you will understand about yourself even more – understand about other people even more – understand relationships even more – because you are making this subconscious connection – it allows for overpowering all the old negative belief systems that you may have carried from the past –

The negative past backward is over – done and gone – what was once something is no more and that was then – this is now – and we now block the negatives of the past – because they are no longer of value – no longer necessary – block the negatives of the past because they are over – done and gone –

This now time is the forever facing forward present to future – a positive present to future positive – ongoing starting now –

For we are creating a strong new foundation that becomes more and more familiar with each day – a positive foundation for you to stand upon that provides a way forward – a Positive Way forward that supports all the goals and dreams desired –

The subconscious now allows images to form from these words and creates a new landscape for the Positive Way forward because you have given permission for it – right here right now is the permission to prepare and accept that positive change takes place –

And because of being in a relaxed state right now – giving permission to accept positive change is sort of like the wind shifts – and a warmer breeze occurs and it's easy and effortless to prepare and accept positive change – because you want to –

And so – just to reinforce now – the relaxation – just drifting and realizing how very comfortably relaxed you are – in fact – an image could easily come into your mind – allow an image to come forward in your mind – an image that stands for relax – remaining comfortable and at ease – with the image of relax –

And when the image is here – in your mind's eye – just give a nod of your head – just give a nod as the image of relax becomes clear for you – let the feeling of relax and the image of relax come together as we anchor it in now – just allow the goodness of it –

Simply bring your right index finger – that's the finger next to the thumb on your right hand and bring it to the thumb – and now anchor the good feeling of relax to your body – right index finger to the thumb anchors the word the feeling the image of relax – you now have a physical anchor for relax –

As though relaxation now begins moving all around and all through – and even in conscious outer awake life – when you say the word relax to yourself – the image that is anchored in the mind – along with your physical anchor – could bring about the feeling of relax – even in conscious outer awake life – and you can release your fingers now –

And next – visualize and imagine – you are at the top of your symbolic staircase of 21 steps, and you are relaxed and confident – you see yourself suggestions here about client sensing themselves as someone achieving the goal – or simple goal suggestions – and with every step down – we are reinforcing all of these ideas now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

Deeper and deeper into the positive domain – negatives have long ago dissipated and disintegrated – including any negative thoughts ideas suggestions from anyone including yourself – we all are blocked now – for your positive good – for your forward movement in life because the overall positive good begins to now take the lead position – as we change your receptivity to become more and more aligned with the positive – no matter what – and now you go fully forward positively –

This positive energy has a definite positive effect when you imagine the fulfillment of your goal – visualize and imagine it fully with any or all of the senses – get a very clear picture of it as the images come all around and bring it to life – more suggestions about the goal here –

And then – there is also this – to help bring about your goals and dreams –

It's been said that to value yourself is an important thing to do – many people know that to have self-value is important – it's something that sometimes people forget to do – to value themselves – so they need to be reminded – some people never learned self-value – and so they have the opportunity to create it – right in the present –

What is self-value? Understanding self-value is a kind of appreciation for the true essence of your being – unwrap the old that has clouded your vision of your true essence – unwrap from all the old stuff – begin to now hold a higher true thought of yourself – as a unique individual with a definite special place in the Universe – and that allows you to remember who you really are – no less than the stars or the trees – you have a right to be here –

Something more – in the coming days and weeks ahead – you will probably have some early morning venting dreams – these dreams are more colorful – you will more easily remember these dreams – your mind is clearing – just releasing any more of what is no longer needed or wanted in an early morning venting dream – just letting it go –

And so once again – before we come up and out of the state of hypnosis – let's just bring the relax image to mind once more – and all around and all through – the word, the image, or the feeling anchored to your right index finger and thumb – it's good feeling –

So whenever needed – your relax anchor can go into a positive effect – easily and effortlessly – even in conscious outer awake life – let it all settle deeply within to begin happening automatically whenever needed –

And this is your positive focusing for today – and know what we say is – what is focused on follows – so it would only follow to focus positively – and a positive focusing can only bring about positive results – that is how your mind and your body responds – positively –

And as we come up and out of the state of hypnosis, count the client out and then put them back in with the post-hypnotic suggestion to re-hypnosis – reinforce the relax anchor once more –

And now at 0 – we reinforce all the positives – and now at 1 – with a big deep cleansing breath in and release at – 2 – bring back those good feelings – realizing where you are – the room you are in – 3 – a wonderful sense of well-being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open wide awake and alert – back to a completely non-suggestible state – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 wide awake and alert –

Session 2: Elements for Success
Emo – New Happens

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

And just allowing for more comfort and calm – all around and all through – drifting deeper and deeper into comfort – allowing the normal, natural rhythm of breathing to just calm and comfort even more – knowing that this very breath can become an internal tool for more calm and comfort –

And to be doing this – in an easy and effortless way – we're creating a new association to your normal, natural breathing – just getting a sense now of breathing in – as each inhale brings the positives to the mind and comfort all around – with every breath in – positives to the mind and comfort all around –

And now getting a sense of breathing out – for each and every exhale that occurs – the release of negatives from the mind and stress or tension from all around – with every out breath negatives release from the mind – stress and tension release from all around –

This is a new association to regular breathing now – 24-7 – breathing in the positives to the mind – the comfort and calm all around – breathing out the negatives from the mind – the stress and tension from all around – an internal tool now – when in nocturnal sleep state at night – in walking around conscious outer awake state during the day – and even when in hypnosis – 24-7 –

This sense within now – shows up in daily life – for whenever needed – just a simple big breath in and release – it's an ever reminder of the internal tool always there – working positively automatically – and it goes right along with calm within calm without – that calm image anchored in the mind –

These two reinforcements to the positive are always there within – even as getting a sense now at the top of symbolic staircase – when this is a time for increasing the value of self – for allowing desire to be strengthened toward abilities and capabilities in achieving and accomplishing goals being met – no longer willing to settle for less – placing more importance on a positive present into future positive – and every step down reinforces these ideas now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

All negatives fading fading fading away – forever going going gone – now is the time for the Positive Way – where the negatives of others are completely diminished – the negatives of others can no longer have any effect – focusing more now on the importance of the Positive Way – because The Positive Way has ignited the positives that are experienced and continuing being experienced – getting a sense now of using any or all of the senses to imagine being in the fulfillment of the goal – more suggestions here regarding the goal –

And with that sense of an increased desire for it – we begin finding an unrelenting belief in it – an ongoing positive expectation for it – and with the kind of demand both consciously and subconsciously to positively do whatever it takes – the goal accomplished becomes more easily and effortlessly taking shape and form – as we're imprinting it on the deeper mind now – because the four elements necessary for accomplishment – desire – belief – positive expectation – and self-demand are doing their good work for which they are meant to do –

And just noticing – noticing the feeling of accomplishment – beginning to recognize it – what it is meaning – what is the feeling of it all happening – the Positive Way feeling of it all – as imagining about it – and knowing the process of it – the process for bringing it from the imagination into reality – has already been starting – and starting in a way that is uniquely owned – coming from within – and that might stimulate a smile about it – a smile from deep within – so that even if trying not to smile – smiling happens anyway – even if stopping smiling is tried – the more tried – the more smiling is happening –

And now, bringing this feeling of accomplishment back into this now time – this feeling becoming infused into each and every step along the way – it has a part in the process of creation – each and every day in every way – the good feeling of goal accomplishment – and so without question – without doubt – it's a foregone conclusion –

So just focusing a moment again on your breathing – letting all of this settle into the deepest part of the subconscious mind – to take place automatically – surrounding it with that 24-7 association of your normal, natural breathing – positives into the mind and comfort all around with every inhale – and negatives released from the mind and tension stress released from all around with every exhale –

Just breathing – simply accepting and allowing – and now reinforcing the anchor in your mind – the image of calm – allowing it to come all around and all through – surrounding all of the ideas – all the strengthening to the positive – all around all through – calm within and calm without – calm without and calm within –

And so this positive focusing for today brings about positive results – and that is how it goes – positively – beginning to come up and out now – at 0 the positives reinforce – and with a deep cleansing breath in and release at 1 – and now at – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Session 2: Elements for Success
Phys – You've Got It!

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Relaxation 5-0 Deep Sleep

And just allowing for more relaxation and comfort now – all around and all through – drifting deeper and deeper into the feeling of relaxation – allowing the normal natural rhythm of breathing to just relax you even more – because your very breath can become an internal tool of relaxation for you – just automatically –

And to do this now – in an easy and effortless way – let's create a new association to your normal natural breathing – just getting a sense now of breathing in – as each inhale brings positives to your mind and comfort to your body – with every breath in – positives to your mind and comfort to your body – and now getting a sense of breathing out – for each and every exhale that occurs – the release of negatives from your mind and stress or tension from your body – with every out breath negatives release from your mind – stress and tension release from your body –

This is a new association to your regular breathing now – 24-7 – breathing in the positives to your mind – the relaxation to your body – breathing out the negatives of your mind – the stress and tension from your body – an internal tool now – when in nocturnal sleep state at night – in walking around conscious outer awake state during the day – and even when in hypnosis – 24-7 –

This sense within now – shows up in your daily life – for whenever needed – just a simple big breath in and release – it's an ever reminder of your own internal tool always there – working positively automatically – and it goes right along with your relax anchor – relax within relax without – that relax word and image anchored in your mind and your physical body – right index finger to your thumb –

These two reinforcements to the positive are always there within you – even as you get a sense now of being at the top of your symbolic staircase – where you increase the value of yourself – as we boost that value right now – you allow your desire to be strengthened for achieving and accomplishing goals – because you are no longer willing to settle for less – you place more importance now on your mind your body your life – positive present and your positive future – and every step down reinforces these ideas with the left foot first 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

Any or all negatives are fading, fading, fading away – forever going, going, gone – now is the time for the Positive Way – where the negatives of others are completely diminished – the negatives of others can no longer have any effect on you – your focus is now more on the importance of the Positive Way – because The Positive Way has ignited the positives that have been experienced and continue to be experienced – so just get a sense now of using any or all of the senses to imagine being in the fulfillment of your goal – more suggestions here regarding the goal –

And with that sense of an increased desire for it – you begin finding an unrelenting belief in it – an ongoing positive expectation for it – and with the kind of demand both consciously and subconsciously to positively do whatever it takes – the goal accomplished becomes more easily and effortlessly to take shape and form – as we're imprinting it on the deeper mind now – because the four elements necessary for accomplishment – desire – belief – positive expectation – and self-demand are doing their good work for which they are meant to do –

And just notice – notice the feeling of accomplishment – beginning to recognize it – the Positive Way feeling of it all – as you imagine about it – and come to know the process of it – the process for bringing it from your imagination into reality – it has already started – and started in a way that is uniquely owned by you – coming from within you – and that stimulates a smile in you – a smile from deep within – so that even if you try not to smile – you find yourself smiling anyway – even if you try to stop smiling – the more you try – the more you find yourself smiling – and now bring your feeling of accomplishment back into this now time – your feeling becomes infused into each and every step you take along the way – it has a part in the process of creation – each and every day in every way – the good feeling of goal accomplishment goes with you –

So just focus a moment more again on your breathing – let all of this settle into the deepest part of your subconscious mind – to take place automatically – surrounding it with that 24-7 association of your normal, natural breathing – positives into the mind and relaxation into your body with every inhale – and negatives released from your mind and tension stress released from your body with every exhale –

Just breathe – simply accept and allow the good – and now let's reinforce the anchor in your mind – the word and the image of relax – allow it to come all around and all through – surrounding all of these ideas – all the strengthening to the positive – all around all through with right index finger to the thumb – relax within and relax without – relax without and relax within –

And so this positive focusing for today brings about positive results – and that is how your mind and your body responds now – positively – and as we begin to come up and out now – first at 0 – we reinforce the positives – and now at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Session 3: Glimpse Hypnosis
Emo – Imagining the Child Image

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

In this particular state – homeostasis is taking place – the mind – and all around – the personality, in conjunction with the immune system – all together rejuvenating – recreating – and stabilizing the entire being – that is its main purpose –

Here in this state – new healthy cells are being created – this state of receptivity allows for positive thoughts – ideas – and images – helping to create change for moving forward – a process of transforming the old to make room for the new –

Beginning to imagine and getting a sense of standing at the top of the symbolic staircase – a steady handrail to the left and 21 stair steps – at the bottom of the stairs – notice a sense of – 2 doors – one to the left with glass – the other solid door to the right –

Getting a sense – up there on the staircase – of being on the path of success – in process – learning – evolving – and moving forward in life – each step down now – strengthens an assurance within for the path chosen – stepping down now first at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 –

Choosing the door on the left – and getting a sense of peering through the glass – noticing the child image as yourself on the other side of the glass door in a room – taking a few moments here – observing the child image – an idea that once was very familiar and now long ago – what is the sense of this child?

In observing this idea of yourself as the child image – what seems to stand out the most? –

What emotions are noticed while spending some time in discovering about this child?

In these moments – acknowledging at some point – that time of life is over – and yet – it can be revisited – whenever so desired –

Now – turning to the door on the right – opening it – and walking into a beautiful room – or perhaps a special spot in nature where security is all around – allowing for space – tranquility – and peacefulness –

Here is where it can all be comfortably contemplated – and also be reminded that – it's been said – that the past is history – the future is a mystery – and every moment we live in – is a gift – which is why it is called the present –

To stay in the present – then – is to be receiving a gift – because staying in the present means – there is a separation from that prison of past conditioning – so then becomes the opportunity – the gift of creating new responses in life –

And – that puts into motion – the mechanics – the intelligence – for the fulfillment of intentions and desires – as this process now deliberately creates a healing effect for the past – the present – and the future –

So from this experience today – let's start bringing back the positives – the good – and the true into the conscious outer awake life now at 0 – to reinforce – and now at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and releasing – 2 – realizing the room you are in – 3 – feeling very comfortable and at ease – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 wide awake and alert –

Session 3: Glimpse Hypnosis
Phys – Visualize the Child Image

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Relaxation 5-0 Deep Sleep

In this particular state – homeostasis takes place – your mind – your body – the personality, in conjunction with the immune system – all together – now start to rejuvenate – recreate – and stabilize your entire being – that is its main purpose –

Here in this state – new healthy cells are being created – this state of receptivity allows for positive thoughts – ideas – and images that help stimulate change to move forward with your life – transform the old, and make room for the new –

Begin to visualize and imagine that you stand tall at the top of your symbolic staircase – a steady handrail is to the left and 21 stair steps going down – at the bottom of the stairs – notice 2 doors – one door to the left with glass – the other is a solid door to the right –

Visualize yourself up there on the staircase – on the path of success – in process – to learn – evolve – and move forward in life – each step down strengthens your confidence in the path you have chosen – stepping down now with the left foot first at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 –

Choose the door on the left – and look through the glass – notice the child as yourself – on the other side of the glass door in a room – take a few moments here to observe the child – a child familiar as you long ago – what do you notice about this little you?

As you observe the child – what seems to stand out the most? –

How do you feel as you take these moments to discover more about you as a child? –

And now – acknowledge that time of life is over – and yet – it can be revisited – whenever so desired –

Next – turn to the door on the right – open it – and walk into a beautiful room of your own design – or even a beautiful spot in nature – somewhere you can allow for relaxation – peace – and serenity –

Here is where you can comfortably contemplate and be reminded that – it's been said – that the past is history – that the future is a mystery – and every moment we live in – is a gift – which is why it is called the present –

To stay in the present then – is to receive a gift – because to stay in the present – means you can separate from the prison of past conditioning – and then you have the opportunity – the gift to create new responses in life –

And that puts into motion – the mechanics – the intelligence – for the fulfillment of your intentions and desires – as this process now deliberately creates a healing effect for the past – the present – and the future –

So from this experience today – bring back with you – the positives – the good – and the true – back into your conscious outer awake life now at 0 – reinforce the positives – and now at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – realizing where you are – the room you are in – 3 – feeling relaxed and at ease – and now 4 – more alert and awake – and 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 wide awake and alert –

Session 4: Communicate to the Inner Child
Emo – Giving Positive Suggestions

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

Remaining calm and comfortable – let's get a sense of opening the door of imagination – where any or all of the senses begin heightening – and begin noticing in a neutral way – a room that seems familiar from long ago –

Imaging now walking into that room where there's a sense of – the idea of the child image of you – simply sitting in the middle of the floor –

They might seem a little unsure – yet there's a sense they might want to trust – they seem as though they might want to get close –

Imagine what it might be like to have a talk with this child image – what kind of communication might take place – what could possibly be said? –

Perhaps something like this – and it might even be interesting to repeat these words silently within as the words are spoken –

Tell the child image – that they're not a bad person – if they made mistakes – people learn from their mistakes – and become stronger in life –

Tell them that more and more they come to know how special they are – that they are their own separate person – there's no one else in the world just like them –

Tell them that they become comfortable with their intelligence – they are smart –

Tell them that they are good looking – and that they become more and more comfortable with that acknowledgment –

Tell them that success and happiness happens –

Now – imagine connecting with them even more deeply in some way – speaking kindly to them – letting them know that there's never any abandoning of them – or leaving them – or hurting them –

Tell them – that as an ever and always supportive presence for them – there's only encouragement and acknowledgment for their efforts –

Tell them – that as the ever and always supportive presence backing them up – fear fades – it fades far – far – far away – and the ever-replenishing strength within continually replaces –

Tell them that they are capable of making their own decisions because they are intelligent and develop inner independence –

Tell them that they can be accomplishing anything they set their mind to –

Because of this connecting time – a strong bond begins building – a bond that can never be broken – something that no one can ever take away –

And for now – thanking the child image – thanking yourself – appreciating the bond – and folding up the whole experience as though this importance could be placed in the mind for always and forever – and drifting deeper now –

Begin imagining next – a sense of being at the top of symbolic staircase – in this now time – with the kind of self-assurance that is long-lasting Add in a few more appropriate suggestions for moving forward and reinforce it all down the staircase at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now – into the positive domain – grounded and secure in this here and now time – any negatives of any kind are completely eradicated – released and let go of – so that presently and going forward – becomes easy and effortless –

This is the positive focusing for today – and a positive focusing like this can only bring about positive results – and that's how it goes – positively – and now at 0 – reinforcing it all – and at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – we begin to come up and out now – 2 – realizing where you are – the room you are in – 3 – bringing back the good the positive and the true – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Session 4: Communicate to the Inner Child
Phys – Give Positive Suggestions

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Relaxation 5-0 Deep Sleep

Remain comfortable and relaxed – begin to visualize – you open the door of your imagination – and notice in a neutral kind of way – a room that seems familiar from long ago – any or all of your senses heighten as you bring the images to life –

With relaxation all around – imagine now you walk into that room and notice the child image of you simply sitting in the middle of the floor – the child image is looking at you – they might seem a little unsure – they want to trust you – they want to get close to you –

Now – you're going to have a talk with that child image – repeat these words silently to yourself as the words are spoken –

Tell them that they're not a bad person – if they made mistakes – people learn from their mistakes and become stronger in life –

Tell them that they're special – a separate person – a unique person –

Tell them that they're smart – tell them they are good looking –

Tell them that as they want it – success and happiness can be theirs –

Now – imagine giving them a big hug – and tell them that you love them – that you will never abandon them – or leave them – or hurt them –

Tell them that you will always be there for them – as an ever and always supportive presence, you offer encouragement and acknowledgment for their efforts –

Tell them they do not have to be afraid anymore – tell them – that you ever and always support them and back them up so that fear fades – it fades far – far – far away – and the ever-replenishing strength within continually replaces –

Tell them that they are capable of making their own decisions because they are intelligent – with confident independence –

Tell them that they can accomplish anything they set their mind to –

By this connection – you build a strong bond with that child image now – a bond that can never be broken – something that no one can ever take away from you –

And for now – let's thank the child image – thank yourself – appreciate the bond between the two of you – and fold up the whole experience and place it in your heart – and as you drift deeper now –

Begin to imagine yourself next at the top of your staircase – fully present and complete in your whole being – in this now time – with long lasting confidence –

Add in a few more appropriate suggestions for moving forward and reinforce it all down the staircase at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now – into the positive domain – grounded and solid in this here and now time – any negatives of any kind are completely eradicated – released and let go of – so that in the present now and moving forward – all becomes easy and effortless –

Nano Imagery Journeys

Hand Back the Guilt – Hand Back the Shame

Emo: There is a definite something about it – like it is sensed about in some very odd and uncomfortable way – and through imagining – as though this odd something could be recognized like with someone else – and there would be a definite discernment that it did not belong to them – because it really has no place with them – it belongs to someone else – and yet the person believed it was theirs –

Yet they could come to know that it did not belong to them – as though they could just hand it back – they could just hand it back to where it came from – it wasn't theirs at all, and so they handed it back – just easily and effortlessly handed the feeling back to where it came from –

And then there was relief – a calm – a comfort – a security – a peaceful relief – and a letting go feeling – that flowed all around and all through – a forever kind of thing – long-lasting –

Phys: It's not yours – it never was – it was just something you picked up – you learned – you felt it coming at you – but not from within you – so it's time to hand it back – hand it back to where it came from – disown it – let go of it – it is truly no longer yours to carry – let yourself off the hook about it because it never was yours in the first place – visualize and imagine just handing it back –

Hand it back right now – let it go –

Relax now – it's over – let it go –
Let the release of it give you a lighter feeling – a lighter feeling forever yours –

Forgiveness of the Self

Emo: To imagine and getting a sense of unpacking one of those bags you've been carrying – pulling out all those negative feelings – pulling them all out – saying goodbye good riddance to those old feelings – breathing it all out – when there is a sense of releasing it all – then packing it all back up – and tossing that bag into the deep – deep – blue of the universe – forgiving the self for carrying all those negative feelings for all this time – beginning the separation from all the past conditioning – and that then gets into forgetting – with a feeling of being into the now without the baggage so that positive future forward on the path is entirely possible –

Phys: Unpack one of those bags you've been carrying – for the last look – pull out all those negative feelings – pull them all out – say goodbye, good riddance – breathe it all out – when you have released – now pack it all back up – and toss that bag into the deep – deep – blue of the universe – forgive the self for carrying all those feelings for all this time – that separates you from all the past conditioning – and that then gets you to forgetting – putting you into the now – so that you can truly move positively future forward on your path –

With comforting – there's a sense of bringing images to life of the Place Within –

Perhaps the nurturing feeling of that secure and peaceful comfort – beginning to be aware of what is noticed – as any or all of the senses heighten –

How does it feel by being here now?

When ready – beginning to notice a warm – sunny – glowing and sparkling light from above and beyond – it's beginning to bathe everything in its energy – this is a positive energy – remaining completely secure in every way – how does it feel to experience this bath of positive energy light?

Allow the freedom of this experience – what does it seem like as the energy of this glowing light is beginning to turn into a Light Path of Connection that begins to lift you up?

While this Light Path definitely seems to be lifting up – there becomes an awareness of walking on the Light Path as well – as the long slanting upward path continues lifting – there is a sense of several gateways ahead – how does it all seem to be happening while walking this inviting connecting path of light?

When reaching the First Gateway – continuing onward – there is a sense of leaving behind all worries and concerns – the Light Path will allow picking them back up on the return trip if so desired – in this letting go process – how does it feel to go through this First Gateway? Continue walking on the Light Path – continuing to be lifted – notice everything –

At the Second Gateway – somehow sensing to release all the rigid beliefs that hold back progress forward – this is the gateway to let go of all ideas of how things should be – they may be picked up again upon return – letting go and passing through the Second Gateway having released and letting go – how does that feel?

Continue walking on the Light Path of Connection continuing to be lifted up – secure and comfortable in every way – what else captures attention?

When reaching the Third Gateway – there is a sense that this is the time for leaving behind for now – all the ways of the small me – these are the human roles and behaviors – put them aside for now – the Light Path of Connection gives them back upon returning – letting go now – and passing through this Third Gateway – how does that feel?

Continuing on now – further out into this vast higher experience – there is a sense of an expanded outer and beyond – through the light – sensing the Higher Essence Child coming forward – on the Light Path of Connection – closer together now – what is there to notice about the Higher Essence Child?

Allow a sense of deep connection as eyes meet – when it seems right – embrace the Higher Essence Child in a way that seems natural – beginning to be aware of this powerful part of yourself – as the idea of the Higher Essence Child could possibly be within –

Beginning to allow communication between each other – perhaps more becomes revealed about life in review – perhaps Higher Essence Child helps to create deeper understanding and a higher perception comes to be known about your parents –

Ask Higher Essence Child about purpose – letting the Higher Essence Child respond in a natural way that seems understandable – and accept answers as they come – how is it feeling connecting in this way?

Beginning to get an understanding of things from the Higher Essence Child's point of view there may be a sense of greater freedom in reviewing the whole of life – noticing any further shifts in perspective?

Perhaps a greater sense of unity of the whole of life begins to occur – allowing for this time to be with the Higher Essence Child as things begin to be explained in a new way –

Take some minutes of silence and stillness for further communication with the Higher Essence Child – Pause for one to two minutes –

The Higher Essence Child is here for guiding – reassuring – and helping – with this connection – with the knowledge of it – allowing more peacefulness within –

There is a sense from the Higher Essence Child that meeting again for further clarification whenever desired can happen –

Anything else need to take place here today before coming back down the Light Path of Connection?

And so for now – saying goodbye to the Higher Essence Child – knowing that another visit may be entirely possible again if so desired –

As the Higher Essence Child and you are turning away from each other to go different ways on the Light Path of Connection for now – the knowledge of that connecting pathway remains within –

Descending on the Light Path of Connection – through each gateway – there is the choice to pick up all the human ways of the small me left behind at the Third Gateway – or not – there is the choice to pick up the rigid beliefs and the way things should be that were left behind at the Second Gateway – or not – and by the time the First Gateway is reached – what's the feeling about picking up the worries and concerns left there?

Allow the Light Path of Connection to bathe everything in its energy once again – bringing the sense of the peacefulness of the Place Within again all around –

Experience the nurturing, secure comfort – accepting and trusting in this process drifting deeper –

And in that deeper drifting with secure comfort all around – at some point – there is a knowing of completing this experience for today – so now to reinforce the importance of the positives received at 0 – and coming up and out then at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – realizing all around – at 3 – a wonderful sense of peaceful well-beingness – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open – wide awake and alert –

Continue to walk on the Light Path as you continue to be lifted – notice everything about your experience –

At the Second Gateway – somehow, you sense to release all the rigid beliefs that hold you back – this is the gateway to let go of all your ideas of how things should be – you may take them back upon your return – as you let go and pass through the Second Gateway – how do you feel?

Continue to walk on the Light Path of Love as you continue to be lifted up – secure and comfortable in every way – what else do you notice?

When you reach the Third Gateway, there is a sense that this is the time to leave behind for now – all the ways of the small me – these are the human roles and behaviors – put them aside for now – the Light Path of Love gives them back to you on your return –

As you let go – and pass through this Third Gateway – how do you feel?

Continue on now – further out into this vast higher experience – there is a sense of an expanded outer and beyond – through the Light – you begin to sense the Higher Essence Child coming toward you on the Light Path of Love – closer together now – what do you notice about the Higher Essence Child?

Allow a sense of the deep connection as your eyes meet – when it seems right, embrace the Higher Essence Child – begin to be aware of this powerful part of yourself –

Begin to allow a communication between the two of you – perhaps more becomes revealed to you about your life in review – perhaps your Higher Essence Child helps you to a deeper understanding, and a higher perception comes to you about your parents –

Ask your Higher Essence Child about your purpose – allow the Higher Essence Child to respond to you in a way you can understand and accept the answers as they come – how does it feel to be connecting in this way?

As you begin to get an understanding of things from your Higher Essence Child's point of view – there may be a sense of greater expansion in reviewing the whole of your life – notice any further shifts in perspective?

Perhaps a greater sense of unity of the whole of your life begins to occur – embrace this time to be with the Higher Essence Child as things begin to be explained to you in a new way –

Take some minutes of silence and stillness as you and the Higher Essence Child communicate further – Pause for one to two minutes –

The Higher Essence Child is here to guide you – to reassure you – and to love you – now with this connection – with the knowledge of it on your part – allow for more peacefulness within from your experience –

There is a sense from the Higher Essence Child that you can meet again for further clarification whenever desired – anything else need to happen here today before we come back down the Light Path of Love?

As you say goodbye to your Higher Essence Child – you know you can meet up again for further connection whenever you so desire –

Anything else need to take place here today before coming back down the Light Path of Love?

As the Higher Essence Child and you turn to part – each to go your different ways on the Light Path of Love – you know you have that Pathway of Love within –

As you descend on the Light Path of Love – through each gateway – you have the choice to pick up all the human ways of the small me you left behind at the Third Gateway – or not – you have the choice to pick up the rigid beliefs and the way things should be that you left behind at the Second Gateway – or not – and by the time you reach the First Gateway – how do you feel about picking up the worries and concerns you left there?

Allow the Light Path of Love to bathe you in its energy once again – let it take you back into the peacefulness of your Own Place once again – experience the nurturing – serene comfort there – and allow yourself to trust in this process as you drift deeper –

In that deeper drifting sensation – at some point, there is the feeling of this journey being complete for now –

And so – let's reinforce all the positives from it at 0 – and bring back the good – the positive – and true – into the conscious outer awake life now at – 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 realizing where you are – the room you are in – 3 – a wonderful sense of well-being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open – wide awake and alert –

Begin imagining and freely let images arise that give a sense of walking on a forest path – any or all of the senses beginning to heighten –

What kind of path is it? Perhaps a brook nearby – bringing it all to life –

If there were a breeze – what sort of breeze? – and how would it feel?

Continuing on the path – soon the path takes a turn into an unknown way –

What changes on this way do you notice? Notice any different sounds around?

Perhaps it could be surprising to come to a meadow – what is interesting to find here in this meadow?

As you walk across the meadow – what was that? – a baby?

A baby all alone here in the meadow? What might possibly could this mean?

It might be an important thing to hold the baby –

Holding the baby – how does that feel? What else do you know by holding the baby?

Imagining as though holding the baby could begin to transport the two of you – where does that baby seemingly take you?

How does it feel to be with the baby in another setting? Where do you seem to be?

Allow what happens next to take place – and complete this journey in just the right way for you –

When the journey is complete – wrap up for a close –

Sensing this experience coming to a close for now – bringing back the importance of what the imagination has brought forward today – and so reinforcing the positives now at 0 – and then at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – allowing this positive focusing to only bring back positive results – that is the way it goes – positively – 3 – with a very good sense of well-being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

What might it be like to follow the happy, carefree child over hill and dale? Let's imagine it all –

As though we could witness the enthusiasm of no-tree-too-tall-to-climb –

Sensing the adventure of discovery – what's beyond the field behind the backyard?
There's a creek! The thrill of scooping up creek water with its yucky treasures –

To notice the determination of the happy, carefree child when the depth of the big dirt hole is finally reached –

To enjoy the feeling of racing like the wind – up and down and all around –

To follow the boundless laughter of this child is to feel delight from the whole world of wonder –

To flop back on the grass and imagine the kingdoms of clouds in the sky –
Where battles are fought and won –
Where pirates flee on their ship across the seas –
Where giant dragons are captured –
Where hearts become united on the castle steps –

And then to follow the happy, carefree child on the way back –
Still more before the day is done –

A friend to twirl with – faster and faster and faster –

A bike ride with no hands down the steepest hill –
A neighbor's barn to steal away in for haystack jumping –

And after this day of conquering – a tail-wagging greeting brings a bone for a playful tussle back in the home yard –

Finally – it means a sweet head on the pillow – where more stories are lived out, dreaming peacefully all through the night –

And – early the next day – our happy, carefree child brightly awakens –

To begin – again!

Imagining about all of this might possibly spark that certain something within – a yearning to be free and clear with a sense of the aliveness of enthusiasm once again –

Perhaps simply allowing the idea of it all to just sort of settle in – deeply – deeply – deeply down within – as though it could perhaps have a positive effect toward those most recent somethings – to just sort of letting it do the goodness that it is meant to do – If needed – a few more suggestions here that are individually right for the client –

Continuing to simply comfort more deeply – and allowing the door of imagination to open easily – as images come forward effortlessly – for the purpose of transformation –

We allow now for an image of the problem to transform into an image of solution – so that it becomes known how easily and effortlessly solution can be found –

When ready now – just allowing an image to form that stands for the problem – simply bring it to life – with some neutral detachment – letting it arise freely – beginning to know about it – noticing the shape and form – the colors, the size –

When the first image is fully here – just give a nod – and again – with neutral detachment just notice what else grabs your attention about it – what is the essential thing about it?

And then – just for a moment – begin to put the neutral detachment aside – and notice how it feels to be with this image – once knowing that feeling – then resume with neutral detachment again about this image –

Next – ask the image – what does it want?
Knowing that information – next – allowing the image to just move over to the side for a few moments while we bring forward the solution image –

Now – bringing forward a solution image – easily and effortlessly – this is the image that stands for solution – again just simply allowing it to arise freely – bringing it to life – and when the solution image is here – just give a nod of the head –

Noticing the shape – the form of this solution image – the colors, the size –
What is the essential thing about it?

How does it feel to be with it?

And when you know that – letting the solution image know about those feelings –

Next – ask this solution image – what does it want?
How does it feel to know that?
And then – sharing with solution image your wants – and how is this image responding?

When the feelings of the solution image are known –
Now let's do something more – bringing the two images together – side by side –
Notice which is larger – remember – anything can happen in the imagination as allowing for it –

If the first image is larger – beginning now – shrinking it –
Letting the second – the solution image – grow larger – so that the first image is smaller, and the solution image is larger – and bringing these two images together now – side by side –

Allowing the transformation to occur –
Getting a sense now that the solution image is brighter – more intense – more powerful – and it seemingly is overwhelming the problem image –

Getting a sense that the problem image is fading – fading – shrinking – and being overtaken by the larger, more powerful solution image –

Knowing about it through any or all of the senses – as the transforming is taking place –

Getting a sense of the larger solution image completely overtaking the smaller image – until the smaller image no longer exists – and only the larger solution image remains –

When this is complete – just give a nod –

Now, the larger solution image stands alone – bright and powerful –
If it could be placed anywhere, that's right – knowing where it is to be placed within – find the just right spot for it –

When the solution image has been placed within – now growing and expanding it to fill all around and all through –

And with the solution image – remaining within – now it also begins growing and expanding into the mind space all around the physical being – into the mind space from the skin outwards at least six inches or more all around and through the mind space – filling and clearing and doing its good work in the mind space creating a cushion of solution energy all around and all through –

From the inside to the outside and from the outside to the inside –

And now with this – imagining being at the top of symbolic staircase – where every step down reinforces this solution energy going down now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper and deeper now – into the positive domain –

Negatives have long ago dissipated and disintegrated – and now, going forward with the solution image and energy all around and all through –

Fulfilling a deep desire within to move forward with the fortitude of being in full ownership of the good feeling of this image and energy within – this transformational experience continues on – doing the good work, it is meant to do for the duration needed for present positive future forward –

And continuing onward upward forward on all levels – this positive focusing only creates positive results – and that is how it goes – positively – beginning at 0 – reinforcing it all – and now at 1 – with a deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Calmly and comfortably continuing to release and letting go – letting go – letting go –

The door of imagination has seemed to be closed tightly – and now, with some new feelings of stronger support within – that door begins to slowly open a little – and a fresh new breeze begins blowing through –

Opening up to the idea of becoming self-empowered – any or all of the senses begin heightening –

Wonder what that means – becoming self-empowered?

Some might say it means becoming fully capable – no matter what – it's as though a person completely and thoroughly owns themselves – they follow their own unique inner compass – and it all moves them forward into thriving –

Noticing that the direction of this way or that way is given – an inner knowing says all –

And they know it comes from that deeper inner voice within –

And listening – listening – listening –

Their imagination begins to set the tone of going forward – securely and comfortably because of the ease and effortlessness of self-ownership – self-empowerment –

Isn't it interesting and perhaps important to hear what some might say becoming self-empowered is all about? –

And sooner than later – an image begins to form of what that seems like – an image of a self-empowered being starts becoming clearer – imagining it to be so –

How would it seem? What are the essentials of an image like that?

As the image of the self-empowered being begins to take shape and form – how does it feel to be with it?

Letting it know how it feels to be with it can be a silent communication within – and perhaps the self-empowered being image will respond back in a way that resonates –

Perhaps even to trade places with this image for a few moments might possibly bring forward more understanding of the idea of self-empowerment –

If it is feeling right – imagining the exchanging to allow for different looks through different eyes – to be experiencing what it is like looking through self-empowerment eyes into the world – how does the world look from here? – what is noticed? – what is felt? –

And then – in just right timing, changing back into what has been normal, natural – and yet how does it seem now? Anything new or different? Familiar? What's the same? What's the awareness and understanding from this exchanging?

Imaging next getting a sense of standing alongside the image of the self-empowered being at the top of symbolic staircase – sensing the energy of the image – connecting to the substance of the self-empowered being – and with every step down, there is a surging of knowledge and power flowing together in reinforcement – moving down the

Connecting – sensing – believing in being self-empowered means –

No matter where – what – when – or how – there's always the sense to be hearing the voice within – saying which way to turn – this way or that way –

These whispers become the inner knowing – solid and sure –

There's always the feeling of following the unique inner compass – allowing the right thing to be found in just right timing –

The ease and effortlessness of self-ownership alone is empowering and becomes more so with each and every day –

Standing up tall and strong, empowered from within – knowing nothing and no one can take that away – self-assured and courageous – your own person – a self-empowered being!

Comfortably – calmly – drifting deeper and deeper where It's easier to open the door of imagination – and as any or all of the senses are beginning to heighten – a friendly place within just springs to life – with images all around offering up this place easily and effortlessly –

This friendly place is just right for walking and talking with Protector – It seems easily to come about – to imagine that – walking and talking with Protector –

And when there is the sense of all that – just give a nod of the head –

What is this friendly place like? – and how does it feel to be with Protector again?

Perhaps it was Protector who wanted to communicate about a particular something – and curiosity is brimming within –

And so – walking and talking – ask Protector what's this all about –

There may be more than one thing – and the one thing that stands out the most right now – Protector says it's time to meet Courage –

Just as the conversation turns in this direction – there's a noticing of walking out of the friendly place and moving into new territory –

Walking and talking with Protector and now moving into new territory – even then – the feeling is still secure – because Protector is here –

What's the new territory like? If you wanted to tell a friend about it later – what is the awareness of it?

And just as becoming a little more comfortable with the new territory – an image comes forward from the opposite direction –

The Protector says – here it is – it's time for meeting and discovering about Courage –

What is this image of Courage like? What grabs attention first?

What seems to be the essential qualities that make up this image of Courage?

How does it feel to be meeting Courage?

Protector encourages to let Courage know about those feelings – it's a way for connecting with Courage – and remember Protector is right here in case of need –

Communicating those feelings to Courage invites a response – how does Courage respond back?

Connection is happening, and as though the path turns to the right – and with all three together now there is movement forward – walking and talking all along the way –

Ask Courage next – what matters most? When Courage answers – how does it feel to know that? –

Sharing with Courage and Protector what matters most from your own point of view –

What is learned or felt from their response?

Then Protector stops walking – and says perhaps more could be discovered if there's a trading of places – becoming Courage as Courage becomes you – and there will always be a trading back to original being –

What happens with this experience? Looking through the eyes of Courage into the world – what's that like?

How does it feel to be in the energy of Courage? What is the sense of it?

Notice a sense of yourself through the eyes of Courage – what seems most important about that?

Anything else?

When ready – Protector is giving the high sign to return to original being – what is the sense of this experience? What is noticed now about Courage?

What is noticed about yourself?

Just then – Courage suggests something Wonderous!

Courage says anytime you might want more of me – just invite me in – and I will walk right in and join you and become a part of you – we will blend together beautifully!

This amazing thought swirls around all three in such a way that moves all to the top of symbolic staircase –

Courage says try it on! – and as the invitation is given – Courage walks right in and becomes a part of – now with Protector on one side and Courage within – self-value and self-trust increase as well – everything is reinforced to the positive with every step down now 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

All negatives have dissipated and disintegrated – and with Courage within and strengthened now – Protector always on side – walking forward on the positive path forward in the positive domain – all is well and good now – going forward becomes more doable – easy and effortless – more courageous – bold – and free!

And for now – receiving this information at the deepest level – letting the subconscious become more familiar with embracing courage – it is a positive focusing – which can only bring about positive results – and that is how it goes – positively –

Beginning to come back into the conscious outer awake state – reinforcing the positive – good – and the true of this experience at 0 – and then at 1 – appreciating the wonders of the imagination and with a big deep cleansing breath in and releasing – 2 – realizing all around – 3 – a wonderful sense of comfort – all together – all around and all through – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Courage Within
Phys – Go for It!

- Suggestive FreeStyle spoken or silent Imagery
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

Comfortable – calm – and relaxed – drifting deeper and deeper – It's easy to open your door of imagination – and as any or all of your senses heighten – a friendly place within just springs to life – with images all around offering up this place naturally –

This friendly place is just a right place to walk and talk with your Protector – It easily comes about – to imagine and visualize that you walk and talk with your Protector –

And when there is the sense of all that – just give a nod of the head –

What is this friendly place like? – and how does it feel to be with your Protector again?

It was your Protector who wanted to communicate about a particular something – and you are full of curiosity –

And so – you walk and talk – and ask your Protector what's this all about? –

There may be more than one thing – and the one thing that stands out the most right now – your Protector says it's time to meet Courage –

Just as the conversation turns in this direction – you notice you and your Protector walk out of the friendly place and move into new territory –

With your Protector – even in the new territory now – the feeling is still relaxed and secure – because your Protector is with you –

What's the new territory like? If you wanted to tell a friend about it later – what would you say about it?

And just as you are little more comfortable with the new territory – an image comes forward from the opposite direction –

The Protector says – here it is – it's time to meet and discover about Courage –

What is this image of Courage like? What grabs your attention first?

What are the essential qualities that make up this image of Courage?

How does you feel about meeting Courage?

Your Protector encourages you to let Courage know about your feelings – it's a way to connect to Courage – and remember Protector is right here in case you need –

Letting Courage know how you feel invites a response – how does Courage respond back?

You and Courage are communicating, and suddenly, the path turns to the right – and with all three of you together, no – you move forward – you walk and talk all along the way –

Ask Courage next – what matters most? When Courage answers – how do you feel when you know that? –

You share with Courage and your Protector what matters most to you –

What do you learn and feel from their response?

Then your Protector stops walking – and says more could be discovered if you and Courage would trade places – you become Courage, and Courage becomes you – and there will always be a trading back to your normal natural you –

What happens as you trade places with Courage? Looking through the eyes of Courage into the world – what do you see?

How does it feel to be in the energy of Courage?

As you look through the eyes of Courage and see you – what do you see?

What seems most important about that?

Anything else?

When ready – Protector is giving the high sign to return to your original self –

What was important to you about this experience?

How does Courage seem to be now?

What do you notice about yourself?

Just then – Courage suggests something Wonderous!

Courage says anytime you might want more of me – just invite me in – and I will walk right in and join you and become a part of you – we will blend together beautifully!

This amazing thought swirls around all three of you in such a way that moves all of you to the top of your symbolic staircase –

Courage says try it on! – and as you invite Courage – Courage walks right in and becomes a part of you – now with your Protector on one side and Courage within – self-value and self-trust increase as well – everything is reinforced to the positive with every step down now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper now –

All negatives have dissipated and disintegrated – and with Courage within and strengthened now – Your Protector always on side – walking forward on the positive path forward in the positive domain – all is well and good now – going forward becomes more doable – easy and effortless – courageous – bold – and free!

So for now – receiving this information at the deepest level – letting the subconscious become more familiar with embracing your courage – it is a positive focusing – which can only bring about positive results – and that is how your mind and your body responds – positively.

Beginning to come back into the conscious outer awake state – first, we reinforce the positive – good – and the true of this experience at 0 – and then at 1 – appreciating the wonders of the imagination and the law of the mind that says what you focus on follows and taking in a big deep cleansing breath in and release – 2 – realizing where you are the room you are in – 3 – a wonderful sense of comfort – all together in the oneness of your whole being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open – wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Emo – Hello to Bounce-Back

- DirectStyle Silent Imagery Journey
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

Comforting all around and all through now – and beginning to get a sense of imagining the long ago familiar – when perhaps it might have been all new being here – so imagining it all – as any or all of the senses heighten and images freely arise –

Maybe there's an image of a house – or maybe it's just a feeling – a feeling that captures attention –

Imagining and noticing it all – with a sense – an idea of the child image as well – with full understanding of knowing all of what happened – understanding that like nobody else ever could –

And if all is right for now – together – imagining coming forward and saying goodbye to that long ago – saying goodbye to it all – saying goodbye – and leaving it all behind –

And so inviting and allowing trust all around – and with trust all around – imagining and offering a hand to the child image – saying come along with me – come along now we're going forward – ever forward out of the past backward – let's come along together – going forward into positive present – future positive forward –

Noticing the feelings about this imagining –

And together now – coming forward – imagining coming forward together – what was behind gets smaller and smaller – smaller and shrinking smaller – and even smaller – smaller still – going – going – going – gone –

And facing forward without looking back – noticing the difference – noticing all the more positive feelings flooding in – the new positive images and feelings that have become the familiar here and now and into future forward – new beliefs taking up space within – feeling the good energy of it all –

And now – imagining this – becoming aware of the energy all around now – as though the very energy of the air around is heightening to a positive energy – and yet – sensing it is really within – getting the positive energy feeling within – and coming to know – that shifting and transforming are happening within –

From all the positive flooding and understanding – now with a positive energy that builds up stronger and stronger – and even stronger in this positive present moment – embracing it here and now – imagining facing positive future forward – with intelligence – with creativity – with good humor – with trust and self-acceptance –

All the while continuing to evolve in strengthening – assurance becoming inner independence – and inner resilience becoming more known – even more trust and freedom within – all along the way – with deeper understanding and compassion – positive energy all around and all through – positive energy all around and all through –

And from this positive, energetic connection – being in the here and now positive present – - future positive forward – the child image – the child image has already become a treasure placed within –

And knowing healing is happening – healing is happening –

With a deep breath in and release now – feeling fully whole and together – in the oneness of being – fully together and complete in every way – with a sense of the courageous – the bold – becoming at one with resilience and bounce back – and with freedom – stepping up to and onto the positive present-future forward path now – with positive energy – and a positive focusing that can only bring about positive results – and that is how it goes – positively –

So reinforcing the good – the positive – and the true of this experience – now at 0 – coming up and out now – at 1 – with a big deep cleansing breath in and release – bringing back the positives into conscious outer awake life – and at 2 – realizing all around – 3 – feeling good and peaceful with a sense of well-being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

As you still relax more now – begin to visualize and imagine – a sense of the long-ago familiar – when perhaps it might have been new for you to be here – any or all of your senses heighten as images freely arise –

Maybe there was a house – or you get a feeling – and as it captures your attention – it all begins to come to life –

Visualize and imagine it all – and of course, that image of the child – too – you understand all of what happened – you understand that like nobody else ever could –

And if all is right for now – together – imagine coming forward and say goodbye to that long ago – say goodbye to it all – say goodbye – and leave it all behind –

And so invite and allow the feeling of trust all around – visualize and imagine you offer a hand to the child image and say – come along with me – come along now we're going forward – ever forward out of the past backward – let's come along together – going forward into positive present – future positive forward –

And together now – come forward – come forward together – what was behind gets smaller and smaller – smaller – and it all shrinks smaller – and even smaller still –

And now – imagine this – become aware of the energy all around now – as though the very energy of the air around is heightened to a positive energy – and yet – sense it is really within – get the positive energy feeling within – and come to know – that shifts and transformation are happening within –

From all that you have acknowledged and come to know – all of what you understand – come through it all now with a positive energy that builds up stronger and stronger – and even stronger in this time now –

A positive energy in this present moment – embrace here and now – with intelligence – with creativity – with good humor – with trust and self-love while continuing to evolve in strength within – self-confidence – self-acceptance – and more and even more love and trust along the way with deeper understanding and compassion – positive energy all around and all through – positive energy all around and all through –

Be here and now – and you already get it – that child image has become a treasure placed within – a treasure placed deep within your heart –

And you know healing happens – healing happens –

Just settle in now – feeling fully whole and together – in the oneness of your being – fully together and complete in every way – courageous – bold – resilient and bounce back ready feeling free – step up to and onto your positive present-future forward path now – with a positive energy – a positive focus – a positive focus that can only bring about positive results and that is how your mind and your body responds – positively –

So let's reinforce the good – the positive – and the true of this experience – at 0 – and as we begin to come up and out now – at 1 – with big deep cleansing breath in and release – bring back the positives into your conscious outer awake life – and at 2 – realizing where you are – the room you are in – 3 – feeling good and peaceful with a sense of well-being – 4 – more alert and awake – and now 5 – eyes open wide awake and alert – 1 – 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –

Positive Present to Positive Future Forward
Emo – Positizing the Way

- Hypnosis
- Progressive Comforting 5-0 Deep Sleep

So just comforting even more now – with every breath – and drifting deeper and deeper – and as we go to the inner landscape again – each time – it becomes easier and more effortless to imagine and getting a sense of what is wanted – a positive present future forward – which is now building and building within – more and more each and every day in every way –

Becoming more aware of the true essence of being – understanding that no one can fill the shoes that are yours to fill – that there is no one else in the world exactly like yourself – with the uniqueness – the individual strengths that are continuing to evolve – and – there is without even trying – there is a making a difference in the world – simply by being here –

Each and every day there becomes a noticing of more self-reliance – more security – and even more freedom – because of becoming more and more familiar with the Positive Way – the Positive Way that allows for calm comfort within – and a way to create the new – through the help of positizing the subconscious – imagining and getting a sense of it –

Even now – getting a sense of the daily steps of moving toward and then accomplishing the goal – with a sense of strong self-value – self-determination in every way – and a readiness to get the job done – specific goal suggestions with personal specific qualities here –

And so to sense being at the top of symbolic staircase to reinforce all of these suggestions and positive qualities now at 20 – 19 – 18 – 17 – 16 – 15 – 14 – 13 – 12 – 11 – 10 – 9 – 8 – 7 – 6 – 5 – 4 – 3 – 2 – 1 – 0 – and drifting deeper –

Any and all negatives of any kind past-present-future are dissipated and disintegrated – it's the Positive Way all the way – all around and all through – desire is strengthened and as desire is a trigger mechanism for motivation – motivation is the fuel for success – and then the more there's an experience of positive results – the more motivation happens – and the more motivation happens the more positive results are experienced – and it's then – there's a knowing about getting caught up in the vicious cycle of success –

So to positively expect the goal achieved and accomplished – simply puts into the equation of the cycle of success – the feeling state of enthusiasm – the feeling state of happiness – and the feeling state of freedom –

Imagining – the feelings of goal accomplished – allowing images of enthusiasm – happiness and freedom – flowing all around and all through – flowing all around and all through –
Pause for 30 seconds –

How it all feels is uniquely your own – and becomes an energy flowing all through and all around – in the mind space all around – like a cushion of positive energy all around – protective – like a shield that continually wards off negatives of any kind – imagining it now in the security of it – and in the freedom of it –

Connecting to the Positive Way – creatively allowing the positive belief for this present time and into positive future forward – with an inner independence to complete and accomplish goals – and surprisingly discovering – there is a liking of self – and a highly valuing of self – past-present-future – and therein is the fulfillment of the flow of goodness all around and all through – which can only bring more goodness –

It is a law of the mind – a positive focusing can only bring about positive results – and that is how it goes – positively –

So too, in this experience today – are all the positive feelings words and images – brought back into this now present positive time – to take place automatically as they all settle down into the deepest part of the subconscious – for now and into a positive future forward – reinforcing it all now at 0 – and with a big deep cleansing breath in and release at 1 – now 2 – 3 – 4 – 5 eyes open wide awake and alert –
