Hypnosis Script

Circle of Confidence

Before starting, find out your client's favorite place and some of the best times in their life and either use a staircase deepener or adapt the beginning of the script to match where the deepener ended.

Begin with your favorite Induction and staircase deepener from Hypnotic World.

You are now at the bottom of the stairs and you are feeling very comfortable and so relaxed.

Just ahead of you is a door - see the door - notice what it is made of and what color it is.

Good - and in a moment I am going to ask you to walk over to the door, push it open - and walk through - and when you do, you will find yourself in your favorite place, (state name of client's chosen or safe place), and you will be very happy to be back here.

So, when you are ready - walk over to the door - push the door open - push - push with your mind - and the door opens easily for you.

Now walk through - closing the door gently behind you - and look around - you are back here in your favorite place - and it looks exactly the same as did when you came here last.

Today is a wonderful, sunshiny day and there is a clear blue sky and you feel so happy to be back here. If you are indoors you can notice the blueness of the sky through the open window - and of course - if you are outdoors - you don't even need to look because you can feel the warmth of the day as it gently caresses your body.

Describe a few details about your client's favorite place - ensuring they are relevant - e.g. if it's a city you can describe the magnificent architecture and the wonderful atmosphere - if it's a beach then describe the sea, sand, palm trees, etc.

This is your perfect place - your paradise; it is a place where you feel comfortable, safe and very relaxed and you feel very happy to be re-visiting this ideal place on a beautiful day like today.

And I want you to know that you can come back here anytime you wish to - any time you want - all with the power of your wonderful subconscious mind.

All you need to do is relax - just relax - as you did not long ago - and take three deep comfortable breaths.

Hold each breath for the mental count of three - and then - as you breathe the air from your mouth - just think in your mind the words 'calm and relaxed' and you will instantly feel much calmer and much more relaxed - and far more confident too.

Now - in your perfect place - I wonder if you would like to create a circle around you.

Use whatever is at hand to create your circle - it could be a circle drawn with chalk or pencil - or outlined with shells or rocks if you are on a beach - or twigs if you wish - or - it could simply be a magic - or an imaginary - circle in which you sense where the circle extends to.

And you are standing or sitting here - in the centre of this circle - perhaps curious as to what is going to happen next.

If you have not already visualized this circle around you - do so now and I will be quiet for a moment or two.

Pause for a few seconds longer than usual.

This is your circle - this is your circle of excellence - your circle of confidence - your perfect circle.

And as you sit or stand in the centre of your circle - I want you to bring to mind all the very best times in your life - the times when you felt so good (name the instances client has already given, describing them as well as you can) - episodes from your life where you did especially well in something - or faced a challenge and succeeded.

There may be other good times that are springing to mind - gather them all here with you and place them firmly in your circle.

There may be memories perhaps of a favorite holiday - a special day - or times when you were complimented or had just done something good and it gave you a tremendous feeling of pride.

And as you remember these good times - I want you also to experience the good feelings again that were associated with each - satisfaction - feelings of pride, feelings of confidence - wonderful feelings - positive feelings.

You may prefer to create symbols to represent each of these feelings and events - and put those symbols into your circle.

Perhaps you can imagine drawing your symbols on the ground or in the sand (wherever applicable) - or maybe they are floating around you - making you feel really happy - as though you are floating on air.

I will be quiet for a few moments more to allow you to create these symbols and experience these good feelings again - and put them all into your circle of excellence - your perfect circle - your circle of confidence.

Pause for approximately 40 - 80 seconds.

That’s good - and now - bring your attention back to my voice.

I want you to know and to understand that you can experience these good feelings again - whenever you wish to - whenever you want to - whenever you need to - all with the power of your wonderful, creative subconscious mind.

All you need to do is relax - and let go of tension - take those three deep breaths.

Hold each one for the mental count of three - and as you breathe out - think those words in your mind - calm and relaxed.

And as you think these words in your mind = you find that you do become much more calm - and more relaxed - and so much more confident too.

And then - when you have thought or said the words ' calm and relax' - three times - you immediately follow this with these two little words - my circle.

Just these two little words will instantly fill you with tremendous feelings of confidence and all the wonderful feelings and thoughts associated with your circle will flow back into your awareness - they will be even more powerful than they are right now.

The words - my circle - are your post-hypnotic conditioned response - and when you are relaxing - in your own special time - you can go back into your circle - you may find new things to add to it - there will often be other memories springing to mind - and new experiences resulting from your newly found confidence - so you can add each one of them to your circle of confidence - helping to make it even stronger and more powerful for you.

And what you put into your circle - you can also take out - you can take those confident feelings wherever you go - use them whenever you need them.

Imagine yourself in a situation that previously made you feel unsure or nervous - a situation where these confident feelings would have really come in useful.

It doesn’t matter what this was because you don’t need to tell me - or anyone else.

Visualize yourself experiencing that situation again - but this time - you have your circle of excellence - your circle of confidence - to draw positive energy from.

So - see yourself now doing or saying or whatever it is you felt you could have handled much better.

This time - however - you are approaching that old situation with wonderful feelings of confidence - calm and happiness.

And you simply take three, deep, comfortable breaths - in - holding for the mental count of three and out - thinking to yourself those two little words - calm - and relaxed.

On the third out-breath - you mentally create your circle of excellence - your circle of confidence - around you again - and draw on those positive vibrations - the positive energies that your good memories created.

And amazingly - you instantly feel calm and relaxed and so much more confident too.

You have now approached that old situation that previously filled you with nerves or dread - and this time - you are tackling it with your new-found confidence - achieving the outcome that you desire.

Your circle of confidence will always be with you - available for use whenever you need it - whenever you want it.

You have the ability - you have the power - to draw on your own special qualities and succeed in all that you do.

Each situation you encounter that requires you to use this technique - will have the effect of strengthening these positive suggestions - and this makes you feel good.

Perhaps there is a scenario in the near future that you have not been looking forward to dealing with.

If so - rehearse it now - in your mind - while using your circle of excellence - your circle of confidence - and notice how well you do.

Pause for about 20 seconds.

That's good - and daily your new-found confidence increase. Others notice a change in the way you approach situations.

You notice small changes at first - but after just a short while - you will look back on how you used to be - and marvel at how far you have come - and in such a short space of time.

My circle - these are your keywords for a post-hypnotic conditioned response.

After a few weeks or months, you may find that you don't even need those deep breaths and the words calm and relaxed.

Instead - you can just think in your mind those two little words - my circle - and those wonderful, confident, positive feelings will come flowing back into your awareness.

Short pause.

In a moment, I will count the numbers from one to five - and at the count of five, you will be wide awake - feeling wonderful - and these confident, positive feelings will remain with you - they will remain and stay with you - growing stronger and stronger day by day.

So get ready now as I count - and come all the way back at the count of five.

One - two - three - eyelids beginning to flutter - four - eyes opening - and five - eyes open - wide awake - mind and body returning to normality.
